ABOUT THIS BOOK? Page 6 shows the example of how to use this guide

Data included in this book is historical. I coordinated this easily for you to be able to find information between two teams and identify any key strength and weakness. Just how I like it. It is travel ready and will not waste your time. You get Historical day and night pitching splits, 1st half teams visiting the home team ballpark in alphabetical. Home Team starting and closers historical stats vs their opponent and at home park. This way you will not have to fiddle around in zig zag action. I have omitted the Monthly Stats of each pitcher. So you will not get info on Justin Verlander pitching in the month of May.

Locate the information quickly. Just Click TABLE OF CONTENT and find your Home Team to get to that page. This guide is put together by me “Wacky Tom Czarnecki” the Lone Handiapper of Wacky Sports with the vision in mind to help bettors gain quick historical information in matchups. Before you place a bet this MLB season, the information provided will steer you into a direction if you should dig deeper in this matchup or just stay away. You will find pitching tendencies to sharpen your betting brain.

I am sorry to disappoint many of you, as Betting strategies are not included in this tutorial. I also will not go into how I make a MLB Baseball Line.

Information is organized, easy to read. I am ready to Cash $$$ ARE YOU

Those of you who downloaded the guide: It is only fair if you could send me an email with a review or feedback in your own words about this guide. You can follow me on Twitter @thewackyreport, watch my videos on youtube under wackynecki, or visit my www.TheWackyReport.com. You can send the email to info@TheWackyReport.com.

I get emails from time to time about how this game of baseball is difficult to beat, and wanting help with betting strategies. You can always subscribe to Wacky Sports Investments at www.thewackyreport.com and I can be your advisor over the next 6+ months. I am a proven winner who built a home Baseball Computer Module Program.

Always check the Situations such as weather, which direction the wind is blowing, a key injuries, how many hits it takes a team to score a run, the bull pen health: are they rested or been used a lot over the last few days, the travel over 2 or 3 time zones, We can go on and on and on but that is not the purpose here. There are so many factors that can help predict the outcome of a game. Good Luck, and remember to always Control Your Bank Roll and Your Emotions.

JAKE ARRIETA now With Philadelphia and ALEX COBB with Baltimore are both on Their Team Home Page and listed info vs teams they play at home in 1st half, but not on the Invading any ball park due to their late acquisition.

THE BELIEVERS

Feelings can sell, and when you know you are on to something and will not give up until you find solutions. And this game of betting on an event sold me years ago. And it took years to realize the realistic expectations and the grinds of the up and downs you will endure. The patient & the ability to not get emotional is priceless. Without further ado.

I need to thank the one who saw myself in a different light when it comes to betting on a game. She says "You're like a Tax Accountant" and to her amazement kept pushing me to follow my will to do this as a full time player and accepting this as a job for life. She's been the biggest supporter.

I love and thank You LF

I want to thank Kay at WOW 104.9 at www.wdln.net for allowing me to be part of the team on the weekly sport talk show for 7+ seasons. Home of The Dunnellon and all of the Football Broadcast especially the Intimidation Motorcycle Gang at North Marion. What a blast.....

Thank You Kay and all of your hard work that you do, and the Funniest times on the Radio.

I want to personally thank CW, a professional Sport Bettor who personally gave me a huge lift of gratitude to take what I know and to help others. He personally was the first to monitor my MLB bets years back. To this day just seeing those text messages or that phone call coming through makes me never forget that he made a difference for me.

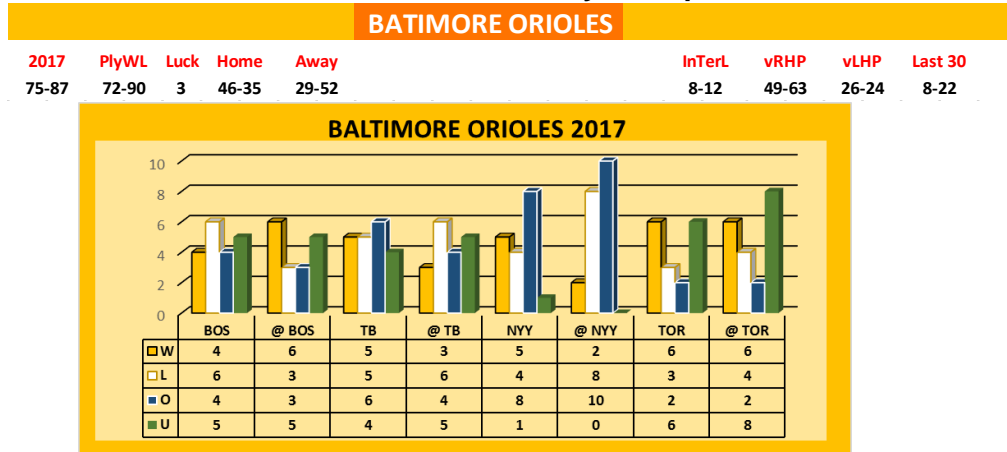

God Bless C.W. & your wonderful family.

I know I have many more to thank. I appreciate all the kind words and encouragement from everyone that ever knew me. You are always in my thoughts and prayers. Thanks everyone for Keeping Wacky Going including Mr. Wheel from West Virginia.

SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS

Pythagorean Theorem

Bill Jame's influence should be a basic concept in anyone's Predictive Model.

It states that a team's winning percentage can be determined with accuracy by the end of the MLB season by having their Runs Scored and Runs Allowed. It is very puzzling how close this simplified and easy calculation is from year to year. Just tell me how many runs a team scored and how many runs that team allowed and I will tell you how many games it has won.

This was first published in the 1980's and still a formula used today in computer baseball programs to predict outcomes prior to the season but this is still an interesting concept.

This is the formula

$$\text{Runs Scored}^{1.83} / (\text{RS}^{1.83} + \text{RA}^{1.83}) = \text{Team Win Percentage}$$

More on this subject can be googled on the internet
